Chateau Chantal is proud to announce our 2nd annual collaboration with the Artcenter TRAVERSE CITY, featuring local artist Jerry Gates to release a limited bottling of 2006 Semi Dry Riesling. The specially produced label features a Jerry Gates painting and is signed and numbered by the artist. The wine is $19.99 per bottle and $5 of each sale will be donated to the Artcenter TRAVERSE CITY.

Jerry Gates is an experimental artist pursuing a fascination with light and color, surface and texture, subject matter and form. His work attempts to capture a moment of “collective consciousness” through the depiction of things both fleeting and static, beautiful and sublime. Jerry has a MFA in fine art from CMU and is currently working on various art projects.

The mission of Artcenter TRAVERSE CITY is “Encouraging art, artists and art education in the Grand Traverse region and beyond...” and it is a driving force behind the growing creative community in northwest Michigan. For more information about the Artcenter TRAVERSE CITY visit their website: www.Artcentertraversecity.com

Chateau Chantal is located on Old Mission Peninsula and grows grapes, crafts wine, and offers overnight B&B accommodations to guests from a stunning location high atop a ridge with views of East and West Grand Traverse Bays. This 2006 Semi Dry Riesling carries an Old Mission Peninsula appellation and was awarded a Gold Medal from the 2007 Tasters Guild International Wine Competition and a Silver Medal from the 2007 Indianapolis International Wine Competition.

Jerry will be at Chateau Chantal from noon until 4pm 10/4/2008 to sign bottles and talk about his art! Please join us!
